GENERAL VIDEOS

V3136 Breaking the Cycle: Child Abuse (video, 30 minutes)
Personal stories are told by three parents attending a Parents Anonymous meeting. This video emphasizes that child abuse is a generational cycle that can be stopped and offers hope to teens in abusive families. It offers viewers a deeper understanding on the subject of the abuse cycle and why it is so important for abuse victims to confront the painful truths that may lie hidden in their memories, exerting a powerful influence on their life as well as on the lives of others so that they may break the cycle. (THA Media Distributors) (HV 6626.5 B74 1993)

V3168

Help Me! Faith Leaders Challenging Child Abuse (video, 17 minutes)

This video is designed to help faith leaders of any denomination understand child abuse and take steps to prevent it in their communities. The video describes how faith leaders can encourage a nurturing, abuse-free environment for all children. It also gives an overview of the problem of child abuse, and deals with disclosure, reporting, healing, and prevention. A useful reference for religious leaders and lay professionals working with children. (TV Ontario) (BV 4464.3 H456 1993)

TREATMENT and PREVENTION - VIDEOSV2045 Abuse: Listen & Learn (video, 23 minutes)

Discusses child abuse in its various forms--sexual, emotional, and physical. Features interviews with teenage victims and commentary by authorities in the field. Topics include: social and psychological causes, coping strategies, the healing process. (McIntyre Media) (HV 6626.5 A285 1996)

V1160 Assessing Childhood Trauma (video, 68 minutes, 1992)

Jane Middleton-Moz offers an important perspective into the world of childhood and the traumas experienced therein. Examining the two major types of traumas, cumulative and specific, this program reviews symptoms of repressed or blocked emotions as well as focuses on identifying and resolving the trauma whether the trauma was physical, sexual, violent or psychological in nature. Case histories dramatize unresolved trauma, tracing its ability to resurface in later generations. (Kinetic, Inc.) (RC 569.5 C55 A873 1993)

V1100 A Better Way: Emotional Child Abuse Prevention (video, 24 minutes)

Sometimes--particularly under stress--parents do or say things that make their children feel bad and worthless. If this type of emotional abuse is constant, the hurt suffered by a child can be permanent. This program, geared towards professionals and parents, explores ways in which parents can better handle the challenges of parenting to make family life both happier and less stressful for themselves and their children. (Magic Lantern) (HV 6626.5 B488 1989)

V2061 Child Abuse: A Multi-Disciplinary Approach to Physical Abuse (video, 38 minutes)

This video covers general facts about child abuse and how to recognize it. Topics include: sudden infant death syndrome, shaken baby syndrome, poisoning, smothering, bruising, lashing, scalds & burns, cuts & slashes, fractures, head injuries, failure to thrive, Munchausen syndrome by proxy, and cultural & ethnic considerations. The video also outlines the professional's legal responsibilities and how to report suspected abuse. (Canada Law Book Inc.) (HV 6625.5 C454 1998)

- V3165 Child Abuse: How to See It ... How to Stop It (video, 22 minutes)
This video explores the four types of child abuse: neglect and physical, sexual and emotional abuse. It describes specific signs that suggest abuse and offers expert advice on how you can recognize a child who may be abused. The important next step is to report it. (Kinetic) (HV 6626.5 C476 2002)
- V977 Four Personal Stories (video, 54 minutes)
This video features four interviews with teenagers who have experienced severe problems in the child/parent relationship, including physical, emotional and mental abuse. Included in the discussion are problems of immigration and uprootedness, separation from a parent at an early age, and the caregiving role of grandparents. (National Film Board of Canada) (HQ 796 L587 1991 pt.4)
- V2300 Just Children: Survivors of Institutional Child Abuse Tell Their Stories
(video, 24 minutes)
This video tells the story of people who suffered abuse as children in institutions across Canada. Five people tell stories of innocence lost and demonstrate the lasting sorrow of those who suffered. Woven into its historical context, each tells a story of abuse at a different kind of institution for children: residential schools, juvenile detention facilities, schools for special needs children, and orphanages. The video concludes with recommendations for steps we as a society must take to remedy and prevent institutional abuse. (Law Commission of Canada) (HV 6626.54 C2 J883 2000)
- V1000 Mastering Traumatic Memories Video I: Introduction, Interview, Abreaction
(video, 92 minutes)
This video provides a comprehensive introduction, as well as a role play preparatory and a role-play planned abreactive session. Topics include: indicators for not doing abreactive work, controlling intense affect, ideomotor signals, safety for vulnerable alter personalities, hypnotic induction and time distortion. (Odin Books) (RC 480.5 M281 1992)
- V1001 Mastering Traumatic Memories Video II: Special Issues (video, 73 minutes)
A series of role-play vignettes that explore a variety of difficult clinical situations with dissociative and multiple personality disorder clients. Topics include: alters who block therapy, homicidal alters, character pathology, self-mutilation, spontaneous abreactions, out of control behavior, safety contracting. (Odin Books) (RC 480.5 M282 1992)
- V1002 Mastering Traumatic Memories Video III: Advanced Techniques
(video, 36 minutes)
Through a series of role-play vignettes, specific therapeutic techniques are demonstrated. Topics include: advanced methods of using the BASK (behavior, affect, sensation and knowledge), age regression, managing touch, hypnotic fractionation, time distortion, cognitive restructuring. (Odin Books) (RC 480.5 M283 1992)
- V1256 Multiple Personality, Putting Many Faces on Child Abuse (video, 55 minutes)
This program focusses on the following topics: the continuum from normal experiences of dissociation to classical multiple personality disorder, how children use dissociation as a defense against abuse experiences too overwhelming to be integrated into a central consciousness, living as an adult with multiple identities, assessment and treatment of MPD and multiple personalities as social issues. (Education/Dissociation) (RC 569.5 M8 M846 1991)

- V2156 Never Shake A Baby! (video, 18 minutes)
 The purpose of this program is to help parents and caregivers deal with infant care without causing injury to the child. It stresses the danger of shaking a baby. Medical professionals explain what happens to a baby's brain while the child is being shaken and why shaking induces such terrible consequences such as permanent brain damage, and in many cases, death. (Kiwanis Club of Ottawa) (RJ 61 N487 1998)
- V2249 The Person Within (video, 28 minutes)
 This program explores abuse and neglect of children and youth with disabilities. It gives a voice to young people with disabilities, their parents and caregivers and emphasizes recognizing individual abilities rather than disabilities. It highlights the importance of emotionally responsible caregiving in family homes, group homes, schools and treatment facilities. (B.C. Institute Against Family Violence) (HV 6626.5 P478 1999)
- V2004 Play Therapy for Severe Psychological Trauma (video, 36 minutes)
 RESTRICTED TO IN-HOUSE
 Play and family therapist Eliana Gil discusses the nature of trauma, how to recognize it, and how to manage its effects on children's development. Includes a reenacted clinical interview, footage from an actual play session, and a discussion of dissociation and other symptoms associated with posttraumatic stress disorder. (Guilford Publications) (RJ 507 A29 P527 1998)
- V976 Three Personal Stories (video, 45 minutes)
 This video features three interviews with teenagers who have experienced severe problems in the child/parent relationship, including physical, emotional and mental abuse. Included in the discussion are problems of immigration and uprootedness, separation from a parent at an early age, and the caregiving role of grandparents. One of the teens discusses the concerns of an adopted child. (HQ 796 L587 1991 pt.3 1991)
- V2720 Understanding the Six Forms of Emotional Child Abuse (video, 25 minutes)
 Oliver Tuthill takes the viewer on a journey into the little known world of emotional child abuse. We hear from two adult survivors as well as two practicing clinicians on the subject of this common but rarely understood form of maltreatment. Tuthill also utilizes actors to demonstrate the six forms: exploitation, corruption, rejection, terrorizing, ignoring, and isolation. (Aquarius Health Care Videos) (RC 569.5 P75 U537 1999)
