CHILDREN OF DIVORCE - DVDs

D828      How to Divorce & Not Wreck the Kids (DVD, 42 minutes)
Parents contemplating divorce are barraged with divorce from hell stories the kind that leave children scarred for life. But there is another reality. Grass roots Canadians are at the heart of a quiet revolution couples working on good divorces, which acknowledge that the end of a marriage isn't the end of a family. This program goes directly into the heart of one of the most emotionally devastating life transitions, as three courageous Canadian couples, determined to keep the needs of their children front and centre, separate on camera. (Filmwest Associates) (HQ 838 H693 2009)

CHILDREN OF DIVORCE - VIDEOS

V011      The Best Interests of the Child (video, 18 minutes)
In an interview conducted by Judge Donald B. King, Dr. Judith Wallerstein outlines the affects of divorce on children, the things they worry about, and the ways that parents can help their children to adjust to the divorce. (California: Center for Judicial Education and Research) (HG 777.5 B4 1981)

V1923      Children: The Experts on Divorce (video, 38 minutes)
The children in this video speak from their experience of going through their parents' divorce. Their experiences represent the bulk of the research findings relating to what children need from their parents in a divorce. Created for parents who want to learn what children think about divorce and what children need from their parents during and after separation. (Family Connections Publishing Co.) (HQ 814 C554 1994)

SEPARATION AND DIVORCE

- V662      Dads & Kids (video, 28 minutes)
Consists mainly of candid interviews with single fathers and their children about life in a single-parent household. Also gives advice to single fathers on being an effective parent. (Face to Face Films, Vancouver) (HQ 756 D235 1985)
- V673      Do Children Also Divorce? (video, 30 minutes)
This drama examines the psychological effects of divorce on children. Methods parents can use to minimize these effects are also described. (Visual Education Centre) (HQ 777.5 D624 1987)
- V3135     Kids in the Middle: Parenting After Separation for Aboriginal Communities (video, 13 minutes)
This package of materials includes a video, Facilitator's guide, and Handbook for aboriginal parents, families and communities dealing with separation. The video and Facilitator's guide offer material and lessons for one-to-one sessions and community workshops. The Handbook includes strategies and tips to help adults assess their own needs and respond to their children's needs. (Law Courts Education Society of BC) (HQ 777.5 K537 2005)
- V2582     One Divided by Two: Kids and Divorce (video, 24 minutes)
One Divided by Two focuses on 13 young people (aged 8 to 18) whose parents have divorced. The video brings an original approach to the subject: animation takes over where live footage stops, moving beyond it - describing the heightened feelings, dreams, hopes and memories triggered by divorcing parents, and uncovering the lyricism and humour of otherwise painful events. (National Film Board) (HQ 777.5 O54 1997)
- V482      The Umpire (video, 17 minutes)
This program focuses on 9-year-old Phillip on the morning that he learns that his parents are separating. With warmth and humour, this video shows how Phillip deals with the situation, troubling and painful though it is, in a resourceful and positive way. Concludes in an open-ended and non-judgmental fashion in order to promote discussion. (National Film Board of Canada) (HQ 777.5 U465 1985)
- V1959     You're Still Mum & Dad (video, 17 minutes)
This videotape features children and parents demonstrating experiences that commonly occur in separating and divorcing families. Role playing, animation and interviews provide information for parents about constructive post-separation family relationships. (Family Courts Association of New Zealand - Auckland) (HQ 814 Y687 1990)

V2965      Family Matters in Supreme Court: Judicial Case Conferences and Chamber Hearings (video, 19 minutes)
This program is for anyone going to Supreme Court without a lawyer on a family matter and depicts fictional scenarios that show two aspects of the process: the judicial case conference and the hearing that can follow in Supreme Court Chambers. The video dramatizes the situation of Mark Carter, who wants to lower his monthly child support payments and cancel child support arrears because he has hurt his back and has been unable to work for six months. His ex-wife, Tracy Carter, needs the money to support their ten year old son, Ben. The video follows Mark and Tracy through all the stages of the process as they prepare for and attend a judicial case conference, where they agree to reduce Mark's child support payments, and a Supreme Court hearing, where the master rules that Mark must pay arrears.
