End User Agreement

The End User Agreement is your agreement with the Government of Canada and the Justice Institute of British Columbia after you successfully complete the STABLE-2007/ACUTE-2007: Sex Offender Needs Assessment training (SOAP106) and become a Certified User.

Both the STABLE-2007 and ACUTE-2007 are owned and licensed for use by the Government of Canada. As a Certified User, you must abide by the following terms and conditions:

- You must display all copyright and other proprietary notices on the Assessment Tools and on all reproductions of the Tools.
- You are not allowed to modify or distribute the Tools in any way, or use the Tools to identify an individual, family, household, organization or business.
- The Government of Canada is not liable for the loss, damage or cost of your use of the Assessment Tools or any of their contents, and you have no recourse against The Government of Canada for your use of the Tools.
- The JIBC may provide The Government of Canada documentation concerning this Agreement and your usage of the Assessment Tools.

You must sign this End User Agreement after you successfully complete the training and before you begin using the Tools as a Certified User.
