

JIBC

School of Public Safety & Security

Corrections & Community
Justice Division

715 McBride Boulevard
New Westminster, BC
Canada V3L 5T4

TEL 604.528.5590
FAX 604.528.5549

www.jibc.ca

Temporary Student Licence Agreement

The Temporary Student Licence Agreement is your agreement with the Justice Institute of British Columbia during the STABLE-2007/ACUTE-2007: Sex Offender Needs Assessment training (SOAP106).

Both the STABLE-2007 and ACUTE-2007 are owned and licensed for use by the Government of Canada. This Agreement allows you to use the STABLE-2007 and ACUTE-2007 assessment tools for 90 days for the purposes of taking this course.

You are not allowed to modify or distribute the Tools in any way, or use the Tools to identify an individual, family, household, organization or business.

The Government of Canada is not liable for the loss, damage or cost of your use of the Assessment Tools or any of their contents, and you have no recourse against the Government of Canada for your use of the Tools.

You must sign the Temporary Student Licence Agreement before you begin the training.

Please contact the person below to receive a copy of the Temporary Student License Agreement:

Linda Alexander
604-528-5646
lalexander@jibc.ca

CANADA'S leading
PUBLIC SAFETY
EDUCATOR