TREATMENT and PREVENTION - DVDs

- D1495      Child Abuse: How to See It ... How to Stop It (DVD, 22 minutes)
This program explores the four types of child abuse: neglect and physical, sexual and emotional abuse. It describes specific signs that suggest abuse and offers expert advice on how you can recognize a child who may be abused. The important next step is to report it. (Kinetic) (HV 6626.5 C476 2002)
- D376      Child Abuse Identification (DVD, 30 minutes)
The identification of child abuse is everyone's responsibility, but first responders have special legal remedies when it comes to identifying and reporting suspected abuse. This program equips first responders with information to be able to identify the behavioral and physical signs and symptoms of an abusive situation. (Trinity Workplace Learning) (HV 6626.5 C453 2007)
- D1425      Essentials of Play Therapy with Abused Children (DVD, 40 minutes)
Program presenter Eliana Gil discusses the unique benefits of play therapy for children who have been physically or sexually abused. Dr. Gil brings viewers into the therapeutic playroom, describes how play activities fit into the reparative process, and provides helpful pointers for practice. With the help of child volunteers (not actual patients), the video demonstrates specific art and play activities that can help children. (Login Brothers Canada) (RJ 505 P6 E87 1998)
- D1738      Just Children: Survivors of Institutional Child Abuse Tell Their Stories
(DVD, 24 minutes)
This video tells the story of people who suffered abuse as children in institutions across Canada. Five people tell stories of innocence lost and demonstrate the lasting sorrow of those who suffered. Woven into its historical context, each tells a story of abuse at a different kind of institution for children: residential schools, juvenile detention facilities, schools for special needs children, and orphanages. The video concludes with recommendations for steps we as a society must take to remedy and prevent institutional abuse. (Law Commission of Canada) (HV 6626.54 C2 J883 2000)
- D1492      The Person Within (DVD, 28 minutes)
This program explores abuse and neglect of children and youth with disabilities. It gives a voice to young people with disabilities, their parents and caregivers and emphasizes recognizing individual abilities rather than disabilities. It highlights the importance of emotionally responsible caregiving in family homes, group homes, schools and treatment facilities. (B.C. Institute Against Family Violence) (HV 6626.5 P478 1999)
- D1427      Play Therapy for Severe Psychological Trauma (video, 36 minutes)
Play and family therapist Eliana Gil discusses the nature of trauma, how to recognize it, and how to manage its effects on children's development. Includes a reenacted clinical interview, footage from an actual play session, and a discussion of dissociation and other symptoms associated with posttraumatic stress disorder. Understanding the Six Forms of Emotional Child Abuse (DVD, 25 minutes)

Oliver Tuthill takes the viewer on a journey into the little known world of emotional child abuse. We hear from two adult survivors as well as two practicing clinicians on the subject of this common but rarely understood form of maltreatment. Tuthill also utilizes actors to demonstrate the six forms: exploitation, corruption, rejection, terrorizing, ignoring, and isolation. (Aquarius Health Care Videos) (RC 569.5 P75 U537 1999)
