GENERAL DVDs

D1728 Making Things Right: Restorative Justice for School Communities
(DVD, 27 minutes)
Drawing on the wisdom of peacemaking circles and the tribal courts of indigenous cultures, Restorative Justice seeks to repair the harm done by wrongdoing through face-to-face meetings with those who have been directly impacted. Many school communities are beginning to implement Restorative Justice tracks into their own disciplinary process as means of reducing suspension, expulsion, and police involvement. The goal of these school-based efforts is to hold offending students accountable for their actions, while also addressing the fears and concerns of victims and the wider school community.
