GENERAL DVDs

- D371 Compliance is Just the Beginning (DVD, 56 minutes)
A training resource to help people at all levels make better ethical decisions. Program 1 introduces the process. Former Enron executive Lynn Brewer and six ethics experts discuss the pressures people can feel that may lead them to make poor decisions. Explores the importance of being aware of our core values, as well as the standards of behaviour expected by our organizations and communities. Outlines the three steps a person can take when faced with a tough ethical choice. Program 2 presents eight dramatized scenarios, familiar ethical issues most people will face at some time, with commentary by the experts after, for viewers to discuss, practice and reinforce the concepts in program 1. (Quality Media Resources, Inc.) (BJ 1419 R67 2005)
- D790 Confronting Discrimination and Prejudice (DVD, 37 minutes)
Examines what happens when bystanders witness events of discrimination and prejudice. Responses range from overt hostility to other races and cultures to acts of genuine compassion. Viewers will find several opportunities to explore biases and stereotypes. (McIntyre Media Inc.) (BJ 1419 C66 2008)

- D385 Morality: Moral Judgments and Actions (DVD, 32 minutes)
 Author and academic Elliot Turiel reviews what is known about the formation of moral thought and action as it has been studied by social scientists. Using footage of cultures from around the world, news footage of 9/11, and visuals from an elementary school playground, the program introduces current thinking about the universality of morality, its connection to action, and its developmental progression. Examines in particular the domain theory of social judgments and the contributions of Jean Piaget, Lawrence Kohlberg, Stanley Milgram, Sigmund Freud, and B. F. Skinner. (Canadian Learning Company) (LC 268 M67 2002)
- D792 Opposing Aggression and Bullying (DVD, 38 minutes)
 Examines what happens when ordinary people become witnesses to events of aggression and bullying. In each scenario, actors draw unassuming spectators into tense and often disturbing situations. (McIntyre Media Inc.) (BJ 1419 O67 2008)
- D791 Standing Up as a Citizen (DVD, 33 minutes)
 Examines how ordinary bystanders react when they witness others deliberately flouting laws or social norms. Viewers will find several opportunities to explore the meaning of good citizenship and the importance of community involvement. (McIntyre Media Inc.) (BJ 1419 S73 2008)
- D016 Truth and Betrayal (DVD, 18 minutes)
 What do you do with a secret that's not yours? When is revealing the truth considered betrayal? Does the value of truth outweigh the cost? This fictional video transports the viewer into the consciousness of James Hurd, an 18-year-old faced with important decisions that will ultimately transform his own life and the lives of his girlfriend Nikki and his best friend Rick. (National Film Board of Canada) (PN 1997 T783 2003)

CORRECTIONS - BOOKS (See also CRIMINAL JUSTICE - BOOKS)

- Correctional Ethics edited by John Kleinig. Aldershot, Hants, ENG: Ashgate. (HV 8665 C67 2006)
- "Standards of Ethical Conduct" chapter in Book 1 of Correctional Supervision: Correspondence Course. Laurel, MD: American Correctional Association. (HV 8763 C677 1993)
 Bk. 1. Supervision in the 90's -- Bk. 2. Working with staff -- Bk. 3. Legal issues -- Bk. 4. Case study. Bk. 5. Final test.

CORRECTIONS - DVDs

- D081 Decision Making Scenarios for Corrections Officers (DVD, 19 minutes)
 Provides corrections officers with a series of situations that will enhance their ability to make decisions in difficult situations. The scenarios are based on actual incidents that have occurred or which can occur in any facility. Some will involve moral dilemmas which test an officer's ethics and professionalism. Designed for classroom discussion. (Lockup USA) (HV 8763 D425 1998)

- D118 Developing the FTO Ethical Standards. Part 2 (DVD, 24 minutes)
 The purpose of this program is to stress to the field training officer how important it is to teach ethics to new corrections officers or trainees. Sometimes, this facet of the job is overlooked, but it should be given just as high a priority as any other aspect of corrections training. The program deals with various aspects of teaching ethics and the consequences of the failure to do so. (Lockup USA) (HV 8763 D484 1999)
- D071 Ethics and Professionalism for Today's C.O. (DVD, 28 minutes)
 This video and training guide sheds light on the need for all correctional officers to view their career at the highest level of professionalism in their dress, attitude, approach and demeanour. (Lockup USA) (HV 8763 E846 1994)
- D1908 Orientation to Victim Services in British Columbia: Ethical Issues
 (DVD, 5 minutes)
 This program contains three scenarios that cover ethical issues that may arise for victim service workers. (Justice Institute of British Columbia) (HV 6250.25 O758 1998)
- D090 Sexual Misconduct Awareness (DVD, 26 minutes)
 Makes corrections staff aware of the dangers of falling into a sexual relationship with an inmate. Any relationship with an inmate beyond a professional one is not appropriate for a corrections staff member in a profession where the goal is to treat all inmates the same without showing favouritism. Getting involved with an inmate in a physical relationship can lead to a loss of job, career, family problems, and possible prosecution for any crimes committed. (Lockup USA) (HV 8763 S495 1998)
