GENERAL DVDs

D1816 The Dark Society (DVD, 48 minutes)
Documents the crime and violence perpetrated by reputedly Triad-backed Asian gangs in both Hong Kong and Canada. Police raid footage provides a dramatic backdrop for extensive interviews with Chinese and Vietnamese gang members (including the late Asua Tran, reputed king pin) and protection racket victims; as well as with law enforcement officers and government officials. (CTV Program Sales) (HV 6437 D37 1991)

D1403 Dragons of Crime: Climbing the Golden Mountain (DVD, 45 minutes)
Filmed in China, Hong Kong, Canada and the United States, this program examines the growth of Asian criminal gangs (based in Fukien province). It documents their smuggling operations in human cargo and drugs, as well as other criminal activities in major North American cities, prime amongst which is the extortion and/or exploitation/indenturing of those same illegal immigrants previously delivered. (National Film Board of Canada) (HV 6437 D72 1994)
End Gang Life: Myths vs Realities: Modules 1-6 (DVD, 60 minutes)
Contains six gang prevention and education videos that provide a unique, thought-provoking look into many of the main myths surrounding gangs and expose the truths and perils of gangs, all with the aim of promoting community conversations about gangs, their effects on communities, and to prevent and deter youth and young adults from entering gang life. The programs interweave real-life anecdotes told from the perspective of former gangsters, parents of slain gang members, as well as police officers who have dealt with both the enforcement of gangsters in the Lower Mainland of British Columbia as well as the bloody aftermaths. (Odd Squad Productions Society) (HV 6439 C26 E53 2017)

The Gangster Next Door (DVD, 44 minutes)
This program tells the harrowing story behind the headlines of the country’s bloodiest gang war -- shockingly led by young men raised in the most middle-class of families. A founding member of a notorious and violent gang, the mother of a gangster girl-friend, and the shattered mother of an innocent victim share their stories about this new breed of gangster. (David Brady Productions) (HV 6439 C26 G364 2011)

Hell’s Angels (DVD, 43 minutes)
Documents the history of the Hell’s Angels, the best known of North America’s motorcycle gangs. Features interviews with gang members, including past and present presidents of the club, as well as interviews with members of the law enforcement community. (A&E Television Network) (HV 6437 H443 1999)

Lockdown. Gang War (DVD, 50 minutes)
National Geographic takes you inside one of the United States’ most violent and dangerous maximum-security prisons--Salinas Valley State Prison in Soledad, California. With nearly 200 gang-related attacks each year, overcrowded conditions have increased tensions for both officers and inmates. Hear firsthand how fights and murders are organized by gang leaders and how outnumbered officers can easily be at the mercy of a gang war. (National Geographic) (HV 8324 L634 2009)

OMG Update (DVD, 15 minutes)
(RESTRICTED TO POLICE AGENCIES)
Ontario’s outlaw motorcycle gang landscape has undergone some significant changes over the past few years. The Hells Angels have clearly emerged as the dominant gang in Ontario. Cleaner cut and possessing more business, technology and public relations savvy than the bikers of old, the HA continue to insulate themselves from their criminal enterprises through associates and puppet clubs. But the well-informed, professional front line officers who know their authorities and understand both their own role and that of the Biker Enforcement Unit will certainly make the biggest difference in the battle against this threat. (Ontario Police Video Training Alliance) (HV 7936 T7 O58 V.084 - V.085)
Shootout At Harrah's: Rapid Police Response  (DVD, 47 minutes)
This program deals with the importance of never underestimating the dangers involved when dealing with outlaw bikers. Just because it has not happened before does not mean that violence cannot erupt at any given time. The "one-percenter"s have no respect for public safety an, especially, the law. They think they are their own law. This program details an incident at the "Laughlin River Run" in 2002. It will guide you through the steps of what you need to look for, how to be alert to potential dangerous situations and how to plan ahead to curtail their activities.  (In the Line Of Duty)

Illusions (DVD, 22 minutes)
This program explores the issue of Canadian street gangs from an Aboriginal perspective. It looks at how gang members are recruited, the role of females, and the long term outlook for gang members. It dispels the myths and lays bare the truth about the inner workings of street gangs in Canada. (Bearpaw Media Productions) (HV 6439 C2 I44 2005)

Warrior Boyz (DVD, 43 minutes)
To date, more than a hundred young men from the South Asian community have died in gang-related violence in metro Vancouver. This documentary takes an unflinching look at the root causes of gang violence and offers solutions and hope for the future. (National Film Board of Canada) (HV 6439 C26 W273 2008)

A Warrior’s Religion: Stop the Gang Violence (DVD, 134 minutes)
This documentary explores the growing problem of gang violence in Greater Vancouver’s Indo-Canadian community. Filmmaker Mani Amar speaks with relatives of gang victims, community leaders, Sikh temple elders, local MLAs and police officers, as well as former gang members who have left the lifestyle, in an effort to draw attention to the problem and promote social activism. The film utilizes the “poetic documentary” approach to engage youth and dissuade them from adopting the gangster lifestyle. (Films of Fire Productions) (HV 6439 C32 B793 2010)

Where’s Winston? (DVD, 23 minutes)
Video is loosely based on a real life story of a Canadian youth of Chinese heritage, a newly arrived immigrant, who becomes involved in criminal gang activities. The objective of this resource is to dissuade immigrant and refugee youth from becoming involved with criminal youth gangs. (B.C. Ministry of the Attorney General) (HV 6439 C26 W44 1989)

Youth In Gangs (DVD, 20 minutes)
This documentary briefly describes the history of youth gangs in Vancouver and the Lower Mainland and looks at why young people join gangs. It features interviews with police officers, youth workers, and educators about the current gang situation and discusses what is being done, and could be done, to prevent recruitment. Suitable for teachers, youth workers and social workers. (People’s Law School) (HV 6439 C26 Y684 1992)
