

Author Note

John Smith, Emergency Management Division, Justice Institute of British Columbia; Jane Doe, Emergency Management Division, Justice Institute of British Columbia.

The authors would like to thank the Kellogg Corporation for its generous grant to assist in this study. The authors would also like to thank Joe Branch who assisted the authors in conducting the study and for critiquing the manuscript. This study is based upon a previous study conducted by James Smith, South Carolina Emergency Management Department, West Columbia, South Carolina, who is not related or associated in any manner with the authors.

Correspondence concerning this article should be address to John Smith, Emergency Management Division, Justice Institute of British Columbia, 715 McBride Blvd., New Westminster, BC, V3L 5T4. E-mail: jsmith@jibc.ca

Format of note:

- Should be double-spaced on a separate page following references and appendixes.
- Should not be numbered or cited in text.
- Centre the label Author Notes in uppercase and lowercase letters at the top of the page.
- Start each paragraph with an indent.
- There should be separate paragraphs for:
 - 1) Authors' names and complete departmental affiliations.
 - a. Use the same format as on title page: name as it appears in the byline, comma, department name, comma, university name, semicolon, next author name, and so on, and end with a period.
 - b. If an author is not affiliated with an institute, provide the city and province.
 - 2) Changes of affiliation (if any).
 - a. Format: authors name is now at [institution's name].
 - 3) Acknowledgements:
 - a. Grants or other sources of financial support.
 - b. Colleague (e.g. colleagues' professional contributions) and special circumstances regarding the study (e.g., dissertation, update to a study, etc.).
 - c. Any disclosures (e.g. paper is based on an earlier study, a relationship may be perceived as a conflict of interest, etc.).
 - d. Disclaimers (e.g., that the research reported does not reflect the views of the institution or organization).
 - i. See Verso for example.
 - 4) Author's address for correspondence (begin the sentence with Correspondence concerning this article should be addressed to ...).

Formatting information taken from the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, Fifth Edition, 2001.