

Until September

In keeping with our regular publishing schedule, this issue of Library News is the last until September. But that doesn't mean that you can't keep up-to-date with what's happening in the Library.

Clicking on the "New Books" link in our catalogue reveals all of the new items that we add to our collection automatically as we process them. You'll see what's new on our shelves as soon as we put them there!

If you scroll down the Library webpage, you can read our Facebook updates covering news far beyond the catalogue. Or if tweets are more your style, you can follow us on Twitter. And of course, we'll be here all summer long, happy to hear from you no matter how you prefer to contact us.

Correctional Programming:

One of the goals of contemporary corrections is rehabilitation of the offender. Our resources on correctional programming address both institutional and community perspectives on the subject.

New Audiovisual Materials:

Some of the DVDs that we've recently added to our collection cover the following topics: childhood trauma, courts, emergency evacuation, heart attacks, kids' fire safety, school fires, stress, suicide prevention, terrorism, verbal self defence, and youth firesetting.
