

Trauma-Informed Practice (TIP) Webinar Series

Webinar #2: Trauma-Informed Approaches to Working with Persons with Mental Health & Substance Use Issues

(JIBC course code COUN-1045)

Date: January 28, 2020 Time: 2 pm -3 pm

Please join Kristi Yuris for the second webinar in the TIP Webinar Series: Trauma-Informed Approaches to Working with Persons with Mental Health & Substance Use Issues. During this one-hour TIP webinar, Kristi will discuss:

- methods for identifying and responding proactively to common barriers to service that people with mental health/substance use issues experience;
- best practices in service delivery - including communication practices, interviewing skills, creating collaborative environments and self-care; and
- responding effectively and in a trauma-informed manner to challenging issues - psychosis, intoxication, and high conflict clients.

The webinar will conclude with an opportunity for you to participate in a Q&A session with Kristi.

Who Should Attend:

The TIP Webinar Series is intended for all members of the justice, public safety and anti-violence sectors. For those enrolled in or who have completed the TIP Foundations courses (either online or online and in-person), TIP webinars will solidify what you have learned. For those who are new to TIP, this will be a great introduction to the topic and will provide you with practical takeaways.

Meet Your TIP Champion - Kristi Yuris

Kristi is a Regional Coordinator with Community Coordination for Women's Safety (CCWS), a Program of the Ending Violence Association of BC. CCWS provides training, consultation, legal and policy analysis and other supports to cross-sector initiatives working to end gender-based violence.
