POST-BACCALAUREATE DIPLOMA IN DISASTER MANAGEMENT

Be the one studying in Canada helping communities, agencies, or private organizations prepare for, respond to, and recover from disaster. If you want to make a difference in a world where the severity of climate-related disasters, pandemics, and other human-caused and technology-related emergencies are increasing, then this program is for you. The Post-Baccalaureate Diploma in Disaster Management (PBDDM) is a 60-credit, two-year program for international students who already have an undergraduate degree. In this program you will gain a unique combination of theoretical knowledge and applied skills that increase your chance of success in pursuing a rewarding career in Canada and abroad.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

This program provides a broad range of transferable and specialized skills in disaster management and leadership, grounded in a Canadian context.

- Disaster management
- Risk reduction
- Business continuity
- Critical infrastructure
- Global perspectives
- Leadership
- Systems thinking
- Applied ethics
- Information management
- Crisis communication
