

JOB POSTING

Date: September 22, 2020

Competition: # 20-39

APPLICATIONS ARE INVITED FOR THE FOLLOWING:
BACHELOR OF EMERGENCY & SECURITY MANAGEMENT STUDIES (BESMS)
SESSIONAL INSTRUCTOR

Position:	Crisis Communications Sessional Instructor
Location:	Online & New Westminster Campus
Division:	Emergency Management Division, School of Public Safety
Reporting To:	Program Director, Program Development & Credential Programs

Justice Institute of British Columbia:

Justice Institute of British Columbia (JIBC) is Canada's leading public safety educator – a public, degree-granting, post-secondary educational institution that has earned a worldwide reputation for excellence and innovation. JIBC educational programs and services are delivered to government agencies, community organizations, private corporations and the general public in communities throughout the province and around the world. Each year, the JIBC's distinctive applied educational learning model attracts an average of 27,000 students, many of whom return as students throughout their careers.

Position Summary:

In support of the Bachelor of Emergency and Security Management Studies at the Justice Institute of British Columbia, the School of Public Safety, invites applications for a part-time sessional faculty position to teach ESMS-2500 Crisis Communications, term commencing January 4, 2021 (online).

We intend to fill one position from this posting through a selection process that will include submission of an application package (as outlined below), an interview, and references. ESMS-2500 is offered every January online. In the future, this course may also be offered on campus.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Work with program staff and instructional designers to review and update course content prior to delivery;
- Update course syllabus and prepare course for delivery, including updating assignment deadlines in Blackboard, setting up groups and discussion threads, etc.;
- Deliver course content in keeping with the course outline and learning outcomes;
- Establish an environment, whether online or face-to-face, that is supportive to learning;
- Facilitate learning by fostering interaction between learners and self and learners with other learners;
- Encourage critical and reflective thinking;
- Provide effective feedback on and marking/grading of assignments.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree in a related discipline;
- Two year's documented teaching experience;
- Experience working in emergency and/or security management;
- Excellent interpersonal skills;
- Excellent written and oral communication skills;
- Ability to work cooperatively with diverse training and development teams.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience teaching online using Blackboard and Collaborate or using other learning management systems;
- Demonstrated computer skills - Microsoft Office, Blackboard, Collaborate, email and internet navigation.

Posting Date: September 22, 2020
Closing Date: Will remain open until filled
Start Date: Fall 2020 prep work for term start January 4, 2021

Please submit an application package, which includes a resume, covering letter, copies of academic and professional credentials, and names and contact information for three professional references quoting Competition # 20-39 via email to: hr@jibc.ca.

For more information about this position, please feel free to contact:

Darren Blackburn
Program Director
Emergency Management Division
Email: dblackburn@jibc.ca

Justice Institute of British Columbia is an equal opportunity employer and is interested in broadening the diversity of its staff. We encourage applications from visible minorities, Indigenous peoples, and persons with disabilities.

