

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

THIS ARTICULATION AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) dated as of the 1st day of June 2026 (the “Effective Date”).

BETWEEN:

Justice Institute of British Columbia, a Provincial institute designated under the College and Institute Act (British Columbia), having an address at 715 McBride Boulevard, New Westminster, B.C., V3L 5T4, Canada

(“JIBC”)

AND:

Bow Valley College, a Provincial institute designed under the Post-Secondary Learning Act (Alberta), having an address at 345 6 Avenue SE, Calgary, Alberta, T2G 4V1, Canada

(“Bow Valley College”)

(each of the above is “Party”, respectively, and the “Parties”, collectively)

WHEREAS the Parties wish to establish this Agreement to provide students of Bow Valley College who have completed certain academic and/or non-academic credits at Bow Valley College the opportunity to be admitted to JIBC in the Bachelor of Law Enforcement Studies program (the “Program”).

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, and other valuable consideration, the Parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Admissions and Transfer Credit

- 1.1. JIBC agrees to grant admission to students of Bow Valley College who have completed the applicable academic and non-academic requirements as outlined in Schedule A of this Agreement, and who otherwise have completed all applicable academic and non-academic entrance requirements into the Program.
- 1.2. Applicants who receive an offer of admission from JIBC into the Program in accordance with this Agreement will be granted transfer credit as outlined in Schedule A of this Agreement.

2. Academic and Non-Academic Changes

- 2.1. Bow Valley College agrees to provide JIBC with at least 60 days’ written notice of any substantive changes to the admission standards, graduation requirement, curriculum or course offerings, hours of instruction or overall duration of academic and non-academic requirements outlined in Schedule A of this Agreement. JIBC reserves the right to re-evaluate the terms of this Agreement depending on the nature and degree of any such changes.

- 2.2. JIBC agrees to provide Bow Valley College with at least 60 days' written notice of any changes planned to the current admissions standards or graduation requirements that may affect the eligibility of students of Bow Valley College who wish to gain admission to JIBC under this Agreement.

3. Use of Marks and Logos

- 3.1. Each Party grants the other Party a non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable, royalty-free license during the term of this Agreement to use its official marks, trademarks and logos as described in Schedule B of this Agreement, as applicable, for promotional purposes relevant to this Agreement provided that such use does not:
 - a) contravene its policies or practices as to proper use of its mark, trademark, or logo; or
 - b) in its opinion, damage its reputation or goodwill.

4. Promotion by Bow Valley College

- 4.1. Bow Valley College agrees to:
 - a) make information about this Agreement available to students of Bow Valley College
 - b) promote the opportunity for Bow Valley College's students to gain admission to JIBC in relevant school marketing materials, including on Bow Valley College's website, social media, and other media; and
 - c) provide appropriate opportunities for representatives of JIBC to visit appropriate forums organized by Bow Valley College to disseminate information about JIBC.

5. Evaluation

- 5.1. The Parties will conduct an evaluation of the operation of this Agreement on the first and each subsequent anniversary of the Effective Date, which may consist of both Parties examining:
 - a) the number of qualified students admitted to JIBC under this Agreement during the prior year;
 - b) approved or proposed changes to anything outlined in Schedule A of this Agreement;
 - c) admission procedures, program planning and other matters; and/or
 - d) recommendations for promotional efforts.

6. Designated Representatives

- 6.1. Each Party will designate a representative at its respective campus to be responsible for collaborative efforts with respect to the administration of this Agreement.

7. Term and Termination

- 7.1. This Agreement will become effective on the Effective Date and will have a term of five (5) years. The term may be renewed or extended by agreement in writing between the parties.
- 7.2. Either Party may terminate this Agreement for any reason at any time by providing six (6) months prior written notice to the other Party.
- 7.3. In the event of the termination of this Agreement under this section 7, both Parties acknowledge and agree that all students who have gained admission to JIBC under this Agreement as at the date of the written notice of such termination will be entitled to the benefit of this Agreement despite its termination so as to ensure the fulfilment of the reasonable expectations of the students.

8. Limitation of Liability

- 8.1. Neither of the Parties will be liable to the other Party or be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement for any failure of delay in rendering performance arising out of causes beyond its reasonable control.
- 8.2. Dates or times of performance will be extended to the extent of delays excused by section 8.1 of this Agreement, provided that the Party whose performance is affected notifies the other Party promptly of the existence and nature of such delay and uses commercially reasonable efforts to minimize and mitigate the extent, effect and period of any such delay or non-performance.
- 8.3. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, if JIBC ceases to offer anything outlined in Schedule A to this Agreement, it will have no obligation to grant admission to students of Bow Valley College unless and until it starts offering such activities again.

9. General

- 9.1. For the purposes of this Agreement, any notice or other communication between the Parties may be delivered by courier, mail, or electronic mail to the respective addresses of the Parties set out below:
