CHILDREN OF DIVORCE - DVDs

- D1990 Children: The Experts on Divorce (DVD, 38 minutes)
The children in this program speak from their experience of going through their parents' divorce. Their experiences represent the bulk of the research findings relating to what children need from their parents in a divorce. Created for parents who want to learn what children think about divorce and what children need from their parents during and after separation. (Family Connections Publishing Co.) (HQ 814 C554 1994)

- D828 How to Divorce & Not Wreck the Kids (DVD, 42 minutes)
Parents contemplating divorce are barraged with divorce from hell stories the kind that leave children scarred for life. But there is another reality. Grass roots Canadians are at the heart of a quiet revolution couples working on good divorces, which acknowledge that the end of a marriage isn't the end of a family. This program goes directly into the heart of one of the most emotionally devastating life transitions, as three courageous Canadian couples, determined to keep the needs of their children front and centre, separate on camera. (Filmwest Associates) (HQ 838 H693 2009)
- D1833 Kids in the Middle: Parenting After Separation for Aboriginal Communities
(DVD, 13 minutes)
This package of materials includes a DVD, Facilitator's guide, and Handbook for aboriginal parents, families and communities dealing with separation. The DVD and Facilitator's guide offer material and lessons for one-to-one sessions and community workshops. The Handbook includes strategies and tips to help adults assess their own needs and respond to their children's needs. (Law Courts Education Society of BC) (HQ 777.5 K537 2005)
- D1831 You're Still Mum & Dad (DVD, 17 minutes)
This program features children and parents demonstrating experiences that commonly occur in separating and divorcing families. Role playing, animation and interviews provide information for parents about constructive post-separation family relationships. (Family Courts Association of New Zealand - Auckland) (HQ 814 Y687 1990)
